We have signed up to the website maths with parents

<https://www.mathswithparents.com/KWeb?>

Each day there is a learning video and some linked activities the children can complete. You will need to register your child and then use the class code to join your child's class. Guidance for how to register is on the next slide.

You will be able to comment about child's progress and upload pictures of their completed activities for us to see.

@parentmaths

Welcome to Maths with Parents! This is where you and your child can enjoy exploring maths together.

As a team of former teachers and parents we are really pleased to be able to help families at this time. Our site is normally used to support home learning throughout the year, with teachers setting topics alongside what they are delivering in class. Until we have made some tweaks, some of our features and emails might not reflect that your child may not be in school.

We hope you enjoy playing the games as much as we do, and tweet your best photos to @maths_parents!
