This week we are writing about The Book of Butterflies by Michael Leunig

Write your own story about your book coming to life. What would come out of it?

SPaG

Add in the correct punctuation. Remember to look for the clauses.

Add one question mark and one full stop in the correct places below.

Can you swim yet Tom can swim without a float

SPaG

Add one question mark and one full stop in the correct places below.

Can you swim yet? Tom can swim without a float .

How did you get on?

Weekly Spelling rule

Superlative adjectives

Comparing 3 or more nouns (things) to the highest level.

Rule: add est to the word.

Write as many superlative adjectives as you can in 30 seconds. Get an adult to check them.

Now research some more before trying to beat your record.

By the end of Year 2 all children should know how to spell these.

Daily Reading

There is still an expectation for daily reading to take place at home. Please continue to note this in the school/home contact book.

If you have finished your books from home there are e-books available.

Reading

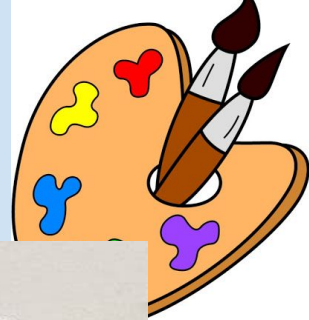

Everyday at 11am you can listen to David Walliams read one of his World's Worst Children stories.

They last about 20 minutes and they are available on the website for the week.

Art

Draw your own picture of a tin of food in the same style of this Andy Warhol picture of a can of soup.

Try to use simple colours and bold lines.
