Handwriting

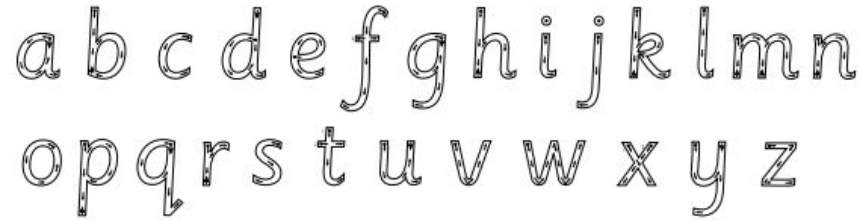

Many of you have asked about how to support with handwriting at home.

In school we use the program 'Penpals'

They have provided some resources which may be useful for you to look through. These are all on the information slides for this week.

As a reminder, correct letter formation for lower-case letters is as follows. The arrows show the direction of your child's pencil:

Capital letters are formed as follows:

Reading

Please see the slide in this week's information slides to help to support daily reading at home.

We have seen some photos of some fantastic reading, well done.

Phonics

We have now learnt all of our phase 5 sounds and alternative sounds, well done!

In school, we would normally be practising for the phonics screening check.

This week we would like you to recap your sounds and to have some fun playing some games with real and nonsense word.

Feel free to focus on any particular sound that you need more practise with.

Phonics

Printable game for real and nonsense words.

You can print off a range of real and nonsense words from twinkl.

Search for 'real and nonsense'

You can choose sounds or phases.

If you click on more download, then download as text only. You can create a game for sorting your words.
