

English

Ways you can hand your work in:

- Hand in these slides , on google classroom, edited with your answers where needed.
- Write your answers on a google document and hand it in for marking.
- Write out your answers and take a picture. This can be added onto your classroom hand in section or can be emailed to Year2@whyteleafeschool.org

Types of Sentences

There are four basic types of sentence in the English language.
They are...

Questions

How much does it cost?

Commands

Let me drive your car.

Statements

The car is green.

Exclamations

What a shiny new car
you have!

Statements and Exclamations

Statements

The car is green.

Exclamations

What a shiny new car you have!

Types of Sentences

Statements

- Statements are the most common type of sentence.
- Statements give information or 'state' things.
- They can be very simple or more complicated.
- They begin with a capital letter and end with a full stop.
- All of the sentences on this page, including this one, are statements.

●
statements

Danyal's favourite food is pizza.

It is 7 o'clock.

I live next door to Elise.

When I have chips I like to soak them in vinegar and sprinkle them with salt.

Types of Sentences

Exclamations

- An exclamation 'states' something just like a statement but with strong feeling or emotion.
- It ends with an exclamation mark.
- It can be used to express anger, happiness, confusion, love, excitement.
- An exclamation sentence must start with 'what' or 'how' and needs a verb and a noun.

exclamations

How greedy of Bob to eat Sita's cake!

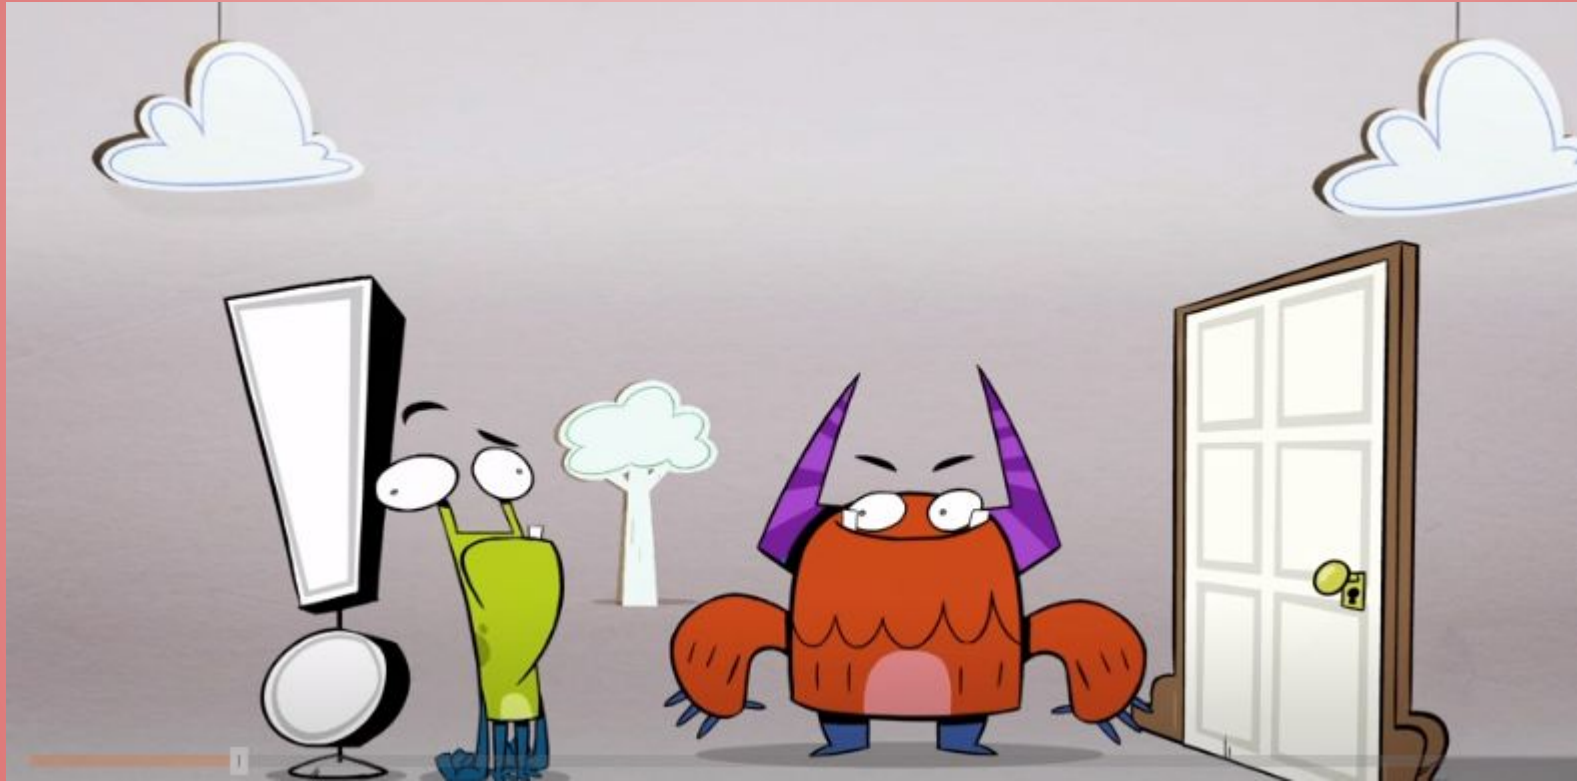

How terrifying this ghost story is!

What an enormous turnip you have!

What a fantastic film we just watched!

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zrqqtfr/articles/zqbjy4j>

Identify which are exclamations and which are statements.

1. How horrible of Ryan to scare Harry
2. I like oranges
3. Dogs are a popular pet
4. What an exciting birthday party that was
5. Yum, what a delicious cupcake this is

Can you add the correct punctuation to each sentence?

Write your answers:

Identify which are exclamations and which are statements.

1. How horrible of Ryan to scare Harry
2. I like oranges
3. Dogs are a popular pet
4. What an exciting birthday party that was
5. Yum, what a delicious cupcake this is

Can you add the correct punctuation to each sentence?

Answers:

1. How horrible of Ryan to scare Harry! Exclamation
2. I like oranges. Statement
3. Dogs are a popular pet. Statement
4. What an exciting birthday party that was! Exclamation
5. Yum, what a delicious cupcake this is! Exclamation

Did you get them correct?

Types of Sentences

Writing Practice - Statements

Begin your statements with a capital letter, make them as long or as short as you like and end them with a full stop.

Can you write some statements about the picture below?
e.g. The dinosaur is grey.

●
statements

Write your own statements about the picture.

Statement sentences:

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Can you draw your own picture and write 2 statements and 2 exclamations about it.

1.

2.

3.

4.

SPaG

Tick one word to complete the sentence below.

Potatoes are good for you, _____ you should not eat chips too often.

Tick one.

that

but when

or

SPaG

Tick one word to complete the sentence below.

Potatoes are good for you, _____ you should not eat chips too often.

Tick one.

that

but when

or

Word of the week

What words have we learnt so far?

chaotic

crouched

dusk

astonished heroic

coax

devastated

endless

frantic

irritate

contribute

distress

familiar ghastly

Word of the week

How many syllables are there?

mischievous

If you don't know what it means, can you guess using other words you know?

Do you think its a noun? Adjective? Verb?

Word of the week

What does the word mischievous mean?

I think the word mischievous means

I think it is _____.